

Descendants of Frank G. High and Helena Bockmann

It would be most helpful if you would check the dates of birth, marriages and death, spelling of names, general accuracy, and supply more family history.

Walter Jasper High was killed in action during WWI, near his mother's birthplace. Just before his death he wrote this last letter to his parents.

In Active Service with the American Expeditionary Force

France, Sept. 2, 1918

Dear Folks:

Just a few lines again to let you know that I am still kicking. Have been sick a few days, nothing much though. The weather over here now is rather cool. Received a letter from Arthur, said that he was about to come over too.

Our Chaplain gave us a very good talking to last night just beside the church which I enjoyed very much. Our band was present and played some of the french Anthems, Marseilles. It is not all gloom over here all the time. We have a French YMCA and expect to have an American Y at our next stop, which will be a lively sector. I think there will be plenty doing of all kind.

But don't worry Mother, for God will take care of me. I am trusting in Him and believe me, I will be a man when I come home and hope these few line will cheer all your dear hearts.

Love to All,
Your Sincere Boy.
Walter

Official records of Walter High, killed in action during World War I, Refer to: AGUZ-RSD-SAS High, Walter J. (2 382 510).

- I. Walter enlisted in the Regular Army September 13, 1917 at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, was assigned to Company B. 60th Infantry Regiment, 5th Infantry Division, at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. Departed the United States on April 16, 1918 for duty with the American Expeditionary Forces in France; was promoted to the grade of Corporal on May 17, 1918, and was killed in Action on October 14, 1918. He was authorized the Purple Heart for having made the supreme sacrifice in defense of his country, and the World War I Victory Medal with battle clasps for St. Mihiel, Meuse-Argonne, and Defensive Sector.

Early descendants of the High from Lois High Johnson and Jean High, March 1983 Note the last name did not always carry on to the child. So where did Hog which later became High come from? Here are the ancestors of Frank G. High. The following is from a Pedigree chart and gives five more generations before Frank G. High. There are much more family history in the two books than I have listed here and the next two pages. Do your part and keep up your family history now so the future generations will know where they came from.

Poems by Bernitta High, sent by Sandy Elliot.

#1

*'Tis a world heartsick and stricken
All hope and longing gone,
That God from his throne above us
In sadness looks down upon.*

*Despair rules the hearts of his people
Their faith in Him has fled,
He raises his hands to help them
That on the cross once bled.*

*They see not His hands uprisen,
Nor hear His voice from above,
For the children of his creation,
Have lost faith in His love.*

*He still is there to help us,
No matter how dear the price,
For He forgets not His children
E'en though they forget their Christ.*

#2

*God, give us just the strength and endurance
To live this weary life from day to day
We do not ask or plan for the tomorrow
Tomorrow is so very far away.*

*Today we struggle merely for existence
Not caring much what'er tomorrow brings
Yet through today without our knowing
Hope in the human heart forever springs.*

*Hope and a faith in God's eternal
Gives us the courage still to carry on,
He still hopes for the world of His creation,
So hope for good in the tomorrows' dawn.*

#3

*A little sunbeam straight from heaven,
Came to our house, a little golden ray,
A baby boy, so full of joyous promise
He made our lives a golden, perfect day.*

*For nearly three short years we had him,
His dearness, sweetness we could call our own,
Then God in his inimitable manner,
Took him from us to His heavenly home.*

*We cannot understand the why or wherefore,
His memory in our hearts can never dim
And may the way not be too long or lonely,
When God shall take us, too, to live with Him.*

#4 ( this one was included in the body of a letter written by Bernitta to Ed)

“To You”

*I wonder, honey boy of mine,
If through the long, long years of time,
You'll love me as you love me now,
And if not, - then you'll love me how?*

*I wonder if, as years roll by,
You'll think of me and give a sigh
For days that will have come and gone
When our love was at its dawn?*

*And then there comes an answer clear
“I'll love you forever and ever, dear.
And I know that through the years somehow,
You'll love me as you love me now.”*

As of the 2002 reunion there are only 10 male and 10 females who were born a High still alive. Seven of the females are married with one whom maybe and two still have not married. Of the five generations in the main part of this book there are a decreasing number of children born with the High name. This is mostly due the decrease in number of children each family is having. In the first generation there were all 13 children were born with the High name. The next four generation have, 11, 9, 5 and 1 Highs. The last generation does have the possibility of growing due to the fact that there are 3 males in the previous generation. The generations spread over 22, 36, 50, 46 and 11 years with the last one has still not completed. Here is the list of surviving members who were born with the High name. Only .0056% of the US has a last name of High. It is the 2286 most common name with about 15318 people having it for their name.
